

SAFE, Inc.

Substance Abuse Free Environment

PARENT UNIVERSITY

Thursday, April 8, 2010

8:00 p.m.

Glen Cove High School

"Parents Who Host Lose the Most: Don't be a Party to Teenage Drinking!"

featuring

Honorable Judge Richard J. McCord

This workshop will highlight the role of City Court in Glen Cove and emphasize its Teen Court Program and Social Host Law which combat underage drinking. Participants will understand their rights and responsibilities to the law, its fines as well as the implications for adults who host parties where alcohol is served to minors.

Honorable Judge Richard J. McCord is Chief Administrative Judge for the Glen Cove City Court and is a Partner in Bankruptcy Group of the law firm of Certilman Balin Adler & Hyman, LLP. He is active in the Glen Cove community and presently serves on the YMCA of Long Island Corporate Board. Judge McCord was Deputy Mayor of Glen Cove from 1980 until 1983, Chairman of the Glen Cove Housing Authority from 1985 until 1987. He has a J.D. from Quinnipiac School of Law and received his B. Arts in 1977 from Columbia University.

Supported by:

SAFE, INC., Glen Cove PRIDE Project Coalition,
Drug-Free Communities Support Program Grant,
The Glen Cove School District & PTAs,
Community Leaders & Volunteers
of the Glen Cove Community

The Parent University Program was organized in response to the January 2008 Bach Harrison Prevention Needs Assessment Survey provided by SAFE, Inc. and administered by the Glen Cove School District to grades 6, 8, 10 & 12. For more information regarding SAFE, Inc., the PRIDE Project Coalition or Parent University, call (516) 676-2008 or go to www.safeglencove.org.