

SAFE'S PRIDE PROJECT COALITION

Family Awareness Day - A Fun-Filled Celebration of Glen Cove Family Unity

Get ready for a day of fun in the sun! On Saturday, June 11, from 1-4 p.m., SAFE Inc.'s PRIDE Coalition will host their 4th Annual Family Awareness Day at Morgan Park. Funded by the Glen Cove Community Development Agency, this year's celebration is sizing up to be a fun-filled day, offering free games, raffles, prizes, relay races, and refreshments to Glen Cove families.

Working together to promote family unity and a substance free family environment, groups including the SAFE staff, PRIDE Coalition Committees, Glen Cove Boys & Girls Club, The Glen Cove Youth Center, the Girl Scouts, North Shore Clergy, Glen Cove Department of Parks and Recreation, Glen Cove Kiwanis Club and the Glen Cove Intera-gency Council will provide information on some of Glen Cove's most valuable family-focused resources. Families will snack on popcorn, snow cones, cotton candy and hot dogs free of charge! Music, games, prizes and raffles will be in full-swing as parents and their children are invited to join in!

Don't miss this fun-filled day in the sun! All are welcome to attend! The rain date for this event is Saturday, June 18. For more information, contact Paula Castiglia, PRIDE coalition coordinator at 676-2008.

SAFE Inc. is committed to eliminating teen alcohol use in Glen Cove. Through a combination of prevention, education, and law enforcement efforts, SAFE Inc.

combats the devastating effects that can result from underage drinking and drug use in order to build a safer Glen Cove.

Through a combination of prevention, education, and law enforcement efforts, the SAFE Inc. PRIDE Project Coalition remains committed to combating the devastating effects that can result from underage drinking and drug use in order to build a safer Glen Cove. In 2004, and again in 2008, SAFE, Inc. received a Drug-Free Communities Support Program Grant from the Office of National Drug Control Policy, making it one of only 224 agencies nationwide to be so awarded. In addition, the Coalition works in conjunction with the Glen Cove Police Department under a grant for the Enforcement of Underage Drinking Laws. The PRIDE Project Coalition is made up of parents, police personnel, educators, and health care, financial and business professionals and is overseen by SAFE's board of directors.

To obtain teen or parent resources regarding drug and alcohol prevention or treatment, contact the SAFE office at 676-2008.
