SAFE Glen Cove Coalition: Feeding Families In Need

The SAFE Glen Cove Coalition, through its Parent and Youth Committee Chairs, Mrs. Laurent Caballero and Glen Cove Youth Bureau Executive Director Spiro Tsirkas worked tirelessly to deliver Thanksgiving baskets and other essential items to needy families throughout Glen Cove. This year, over 30 families identified by the Coalition received donations. Much thanks to the Werz family for adopting ten families this year and assisting in the deliveries.

SAFE is the only not for profit alcohol and substance use alcohol, prevention, intervention and education agency in the City of Glen Cove. Its Coalition is composed of four established Committees, Parent, Youth, School and Community and is composed of the following sectors The Mayor's office, Youth, Parents/PTA members, Glen Cove Police Department, Glen Cove School District, Glen Cove Business Improvement District, the Glen Cove Youth Bureau, Congregation Tifereth Israel, SAFE, Charles Evans Center and NY State Office of Addiction Services and Supports.
